One member of the Indians put it like this: "The Red Sox are failing to take advantage of things they would have turned to their credit a year ago. The club is not hitting and the fielding is getting ragged. In addition, Ruth is the only consistently effective pitcher.

"Some folk are inclined to lay a great deal of stress on George Foster's one-hit game recently, but the fact of the matter is we should have beaten him badly. Every ball hit was driven hard, but always directly at some fielder. Foster's pitching will not give the Red Sox much help, regardless of what you hear.
